

platform, I overheard a gentleman ask him what he thought of Amⁿ-Slavery now? He replied, "the same as I ever thought of it."

This ~~gentle~~ Minister is the Rev^d J.
Montgomery of Jersey, bro^r the Rev^d R. M. Pratt^d of Jamaica; - the latter is quite Anti Slavery.

I judge from a notice in a recent Nat^l A. S. Standard, that Douglass had not then received the copy of his work in French.

My daughter has been writing to Mr May a history of curious scraps both she & her aunt, Mrs^r Michell have ~~been~~ manufactured out of "shreds & patches" - I think it does them great credit

Mr. Webb has been asking me write something for the Liberty Bell: but unless I have something definite to write about my pen is very inert. A poetical or sentimental essay does not, - in the present period of my life at least, - suit my utilitarian taste & ability.

I trust the Bristol box sent by the Arcturion will arrive safely. I was rather surprised to hear of her having our valuable cargo committed to her charge, as no person but a sail maker had any communication with the Capt.
I went on board the ship, & heard she would go to Boston, but was sail from Newport in Wales: it is reported the Capt. will take the box free of charge. I have not been accustomed to give America Captain's much credit for scientific zeal.

Believe me, very dear
Anthony
Yours sincerely
J. B. Lillie
